SIDE FX & KIM CAMERON TEAMED UP TO RELEASE A GROOVY DEEP HOUSE TUNE CALLED “WANNA GO”!

Side FX & Kim Cameron teamed up to release a brand new track called “Wanna Go”. Even though the original tune sounds good as it is, the remix from Halo’s Bosa Nova sounds even better. Bringing a latino vibe on a groovy deep house tune with the background trumpets and the salsa rhythmic part, the producer managed to create a real dance floor killer, ready to be played on any beach or club party this summer.
