About Kim:

Growing up around Los Angeles, music has always been a large part of Kim Cameron's life. She participated in musical theatre, marching bands, and performed in choir all through her adolescence and received her degree in broadcast journalism from Wichita State University. As an adult, she continued to incorporate music into her life by performing in cover bands throughout the 1990s. After working for years in the corporate world, she decided to pursue music full time and released her first album Contradictions in 2008. She has had several tracks featured on Billboard's Dance Club charts as well as the Starfleet Dance Chart, DJ Times Dance Chart, and more. Her album No Regrets is the only album by an independent artist to have 5 charting singles. Her music videos on Youtube have garnered over 2 million views collectively and have won several awards from film festivals including the Los
