Billboard Artist signs Major Publishing Deals across the Globe

Kim Cameron signs with three publishing houses abroad after charting 12 number One songs

– 26-July-2016 – Leveraging her ride on the DJ charts and her success on the radio, Kim Cameron has just struck several deals abroad.

The first is with Shanghai Leyi Culture Media Company, Ltd. Leyi Culture is a culture and technology company established in 2013, with offices in Shanghai and Beijing. It has expertise in production, performance and artist management.

The second licensing deal is with a Korean based Publishing house, KD Digital Media, that places music in Asian TV, Film, and E-Books. They are one of the largest event and concert promoters in Korea.

The third is with Digital Minds, a UK-based new media company that is an expert in art technology. They will use their multi-platform ecosystem to distribute Kim’s digital stories across multiple platforms. All three licensing and sync contracts signal another major step for the bands now 250+ catalogue.

“This year has been truly amazing for me,” says Kim. “I am not sure how I could have done any of this without my team. They are so amazing!”
