Side FX Band Coming to Nantucket Music Scene

The acclaimed Washington DC based Side FX band are coming to Nantucket!

For Side FX singer and songwriter Kim Cameron, the gorgeous Nantucket landscapes are just a small part of the reason she returns every year to visit what she calls this “wonderland of romance.”

“Life balance is what Nantucket is what it is all about for me - so much that I found myself feeling like I had totally escaped the normal rat race at the local Cisco brewery one day, last year.” And it was during that one day, at the popular local brewery, that Kim was inspired to write the song “Timeless”, which will be featured in her upcoming album “Turning Point”, scheduled for release in the fall.

Producer Robert Jazayeri expects the lively, upbeat song to be the hit of her sophomore album: “Its catchy beat and high pitched sounds are unlike any other songs that she has developed. It has a fun fresh feel that just sounds like summer. Perfect for a day in the Islands!”

You can hear the song “Timeless”, a tribute to the gorgeous island of Nantucket, on Side FX’s website (www.sidefxband.net), or Kim Cameron’s site (www.kimcameronmusic.com). And you can download it now for just $1 at <http://www.fizzkicks.com/sidefxband/>

Kim Cameron is visiting the Nantucket area from July 8 to 12th.

You can also tune in on Saturday July 11th at 9:15AM to watch Kim Cameron & the Side FX band perform the song live on Plum TV Nantucket
