

DAILY FILM FORUM

Kim Cameron's CD Release Event In NYC

Franki Blue & Kim Cameron

Two-time top 20 Billboard artist Kim Cameron's release party pulled no punches at empire hotels rooftop soiree with a packed house. Singers, songwriters, actor, producers lined up for her first listening party that overlooked the famed performing arts complex at the Lincoln Center. With her 5th cd release, Kim played host to wide spectrum of prominent music names.

Franki Blue (former KTU Program Director), Richard Trifan (aka Village People), New York Music Pool, National fitness model champs, Wall Streeters, Chef Mark McLean, even Harpers Bizarre were on the roof last night. Hosted by celebrity photographer Steve Mack and actor Keith Colins, this party was one not to be missed with fans lined up outside hoping to get in. By 7 o'clock, the floor became so packed that invitees had to be turned away.